

BEST INTEREST OF CHILD HANDBOOK

WORK LAW - CONFIDENTIAL

CHILD CUSTODY WORKSHEET

When deciding child custody, the court always look at the Best Interest Factors set about by the Nevada Revised Statutes. Please provide information below as to why each factor weighs in favor of our case.

- The child's ability to maintain contact with full or half siblings
  - If applicable, how will you make sure the child maintains contact with siblings and/or family:

- The mental and physical health of both parents
  - Why are you the more fit parent both mentally and physically

- The child's physical and emotional needs
  - How will you best provide for the child's physical and emotional needs:

- Any documented or reported history of abuse
  - Please provide any incidents or information involving violence against the opposing party:

- The child's relationship with each parent
  - Please explain why you have the healthier relationship with your child:

- The level of conflict between the parents
  - Please provide information and incident(s) relating to conflict with the opposing party:

- Each parent's willingness to encourage a relationship between the child and the other parent
  - Please explain how you would make sure your child continued to have a meaningful relationship with the opposing party:

Timeline

Please provide a timeline of incidents and events representing behavior by the opposing party that have caused you concern.

Extracurricular activities your child participates in:

Special Needs of Child:

Please provide any additional concerns you have about the opposing party:

When you return this packet, please bring with it:

- Picture of any text messages demonstrating negative behavior by the opposing party
- A picture of your children's current living conditions
- A printed, daily routine for you child
- Any positive academic achievements
- Attendance
- W2
- List of people in your child support network
- ANY other evidence you deem important

